BLOOMBERG TAX HOSTED SOFTWARE LICENSE ADDENDUM

This Bloomberg Tax Hosted Software License Addendum (the "Hosted Software Addendum") supplements the Bloomberg Industry Group Customer Agreement (the "Agreement") solely relating to Bloomberg Tax hosted software Products. Solely with respect to Bloomberg Tax hosted software Products, in the event of a conflict between the Agreement and this Hosted Software Addendum, this Hosted Software Addendum shall control. Bloomberg Tax hosted software Products currently include: Fixed Assets, Workpapers, Tax Provision, and Income Tax Planner (Web version). Capitalized terms not defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Agreement.

A. License. Bloomberg Industry Group hereby grants to Customer a non-exclusive, non-transferable, limited license to access and/or use one or more Bloomberg Industry Group Products, including software programs, applications, and/or any associated software modules and documentation, and any updates thereto, as described below and in the applicable Bloomberg Industry Group Order Form(s) or renewal invoice (individually and collectively, "Order Form"), the terms of which are incorporated herein.

B. User Count. Each individual who is granted access to a Product during the applicable Term of an Order Form shall count as a User, with the exception that, upon termination of an employment or contracting relationship with any User, Customer may transfer the applicable license to a new User. The number of Users accessing the Product(s) may not exceed the maximum number specified on the applicable Order Form or renewal invoice.

C. Permitted Uses. Users may access and use the Products (and the content contained therein) solely for their own internal business purposes, except as otherwise expressly permitted in the applicable Order Form. Users shall not share User names and/or passwords. Customer agrees to notify Bloomberg Industry Group promptly in writing (email sufficing) of any known or suspected unauthorized use of the Products or any known or suspected breach of security, including but not limited to, loss, theft, or unauthorized disclosure of User names and passwords.

D. Restrictions. In no event may Customer copy, reproduce, create derivative works from, perform, publish, transmit, distribute, or sell (or participate in any sale of) the Product or any portion thereof. Nor may Customer access, use, or exploit the Product or material retrieved from or contained in the Product other than in the ordinary course of Customer's internal business (unless otherwise set forth in an Order Form); store the Product in any information storage and retrieval system; distribute the information contained in the Product to any person who is not duly authorized to use or receive the Product; or decompile, disassemble, or otherwise reverse-engineer the Product. Unless permitted by the applicable Order Form(s), Customer may not place or install the Product on any electronic media, including, but not limited to, local or wide area networks or intranets, multiple processing units, multiple site arrangements, service or software rental bureaus, list servers, online services, bulletin boards or forums, Web sites, or any other server that is Internet-enabled. In no event may Customer access or use, or permit any third party to access or use, the Product to compete with the business of Bloomberg Industry Group or its affiliates. For the avoidance of doubt, Customer is in no way restricted from retrieving and using, in the ordinary course of Customer's business, Customer's own data files generated by unmodified use of the Product.

E. Access to Support. Customer Support services are provided at the Bloomberg Industry Group website and via toll-free telephone during standard business hours. Please see the Bloomberg Tax website for additional information.

F. Return of Customer Data. Customers are able to extract Customer data via ordinary use of the Product during the Term of an applicable Order Form. Upon written request by Customer made within thirty (30) days after the effective date of termination of an Order Form or the Agreement and this Hosted Software Addendum, Bloomberg Industry Group, for an agreed upon fee, will make the Product available to and will assist Customer for the purposes of utilizing the Product to extract Customer data entered into the Product in an electronic format along with attachments in their native format. After such 30-day period, Bloomberg Industry Group shall have no obligation to maintain or provide any Customer data, and all copies of Customer data on active systems will be removed following such 30-day period. Archived copies of Customer data will be removed approximately one year following the effective date of termination of an Order Form or the Agreement. Customer data within the archive can be removed earlier for an agreed upon fee.
