

2024 Bloomberg Law Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Framework

The Bloomberg Law Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) Framework is a listing of law firms that meet or exceed an established threshold of diversity, equity, and inclusion in their firm. Standardized disclosure of diversity-related data allows firms to attract and retain talent, and also allows companies looking to procure legal services to easily compare law firms from a supplier diversity standpoint.

Overall Scores

Firms are assigned a Bloomberg Law DEI Score based on data disclosed for the metrics defined in the DEI Framework. The DEI Score measures both the level of disclosure of diversity-related metrics, as well as distinguished performance against standards in each of the six pillar areas, weighted and combined into an overall performance score.

The 2024 Framework is made up of 57 law firms from across the United States, ranging in size from under 10 to nearly 2,000 attorneys. Bloomberg Law's DEI Framework provides a platform for standardizing law firm diversity metrics, allowing firms to provide their data in one comprehensive Data Collection Instrument, and corporations to quickly access a DEI Framework Listing of firms that meet or exceed an established threshold of diversity, equity, and inclusion.

In the fourth year of this program, submissions increased by 15%, our third year in a row of double digit increases in submissions, giving an even more robust view of diversity in the legal industry.

DEI Pillar Scores

The DEI Scores measure distinguished performance against standards in each of the six pillar areas. Each is measured from 0-100%, with 100% being a perfect score. Firms only earn points for exceeding overall industry averages (according to ABA and NALP industry reports)*, so anything over 0% represents exceeding averages in at least one metric and 100% represents exceeding averages on every metric.

Methodology

The scoring for the six pillar areas represents 90% of the total DEI Score (the remaining 10% is based on Disclosure). The pillars of Marketing and Diversity & Inclusion in the Community are combined, as these are smaller survey sections. Each pillar, or combination of pillars, receives its own score.

The pillar scores are weighted to determine 90% of the full DEI score as follows:

25% = Recruitment & Retention

25% = Leadership & Talent Pipeline

15% = Business Strategy & Innovation

15% = Firm Demographics

10% = Diversity & Inclusion + Marketing

10% = Disclosure

How Pillars are Weighted to Determine DEI Score

Industry Demographics

The firms participating tend to meet or exceed industry averages for many diversity metrics.

81% of companies have a Chief Diversity Officer (or equivalent)

41% of firms say that Practice Group Leaders have clear diversity and inclusion goals included as part of their annual performance review

65% of firms mandate and monitor that minority and women attorneys have equal access to client, quality work assignments, committee appointments, marketing efforts, and firm events

95% of firms have a public statement regarding their commitment to diversity and inclusion

57% of firms tie a component of partner compensation to diversity efforts

35% conducted a pay audit in 2023

72% of firms require diversity within a pool of candidates for management and leadership roles (and of those, an average of 22% of slated candidates must be diverse)

41% currently track origination credit diverse attorneys receive, but only 26% have a strategic plan to improve it

Female

Just over half of all associates are women, and they account for nearly one-third of all partners.

53%
Associates

Women

African American/Black

Hispanic Latino/a

Asian American

LGBTQ+

Groups with less than 30% of firms saying they have an ERG for this group not shown.

Of Employee Resource or Affinity Groups within law firms, approximately 84% have their own budget. Leaders of these groups are typically volunteers, with just over half (56%) receiving billable hour credit for their leadership role. For leaders that do get billable hour credit, 73% get about the same amount of credit as pro bono or bar work.

Accessibility in Law Firms

This year, we added a few questions to specifically address accessibility within the legal community.

52%

of firms have a website that is WCAG2 (Web Content Accessibility Guidelines) compliant

2%

of partners and 3% of associates identify as a person with one or more disabilities

49%

offer training to at least some employees on how to interact with and/or manage an employee with a disability

80%

of firms allow employees to access basic accessibility aids (ergonomic office equipment, chairs, screen reading software) without requesting an accommodation
