

COP27 Activities

Monday, November 7th

18:30 – 19:00	Forest and Climate Leaders Summit Mark Carney will deliver remarks during a session on Shifting the Financial System within the Forest and Climate Leaders' Summit event. Access to World Leaders Summit required.	Blue Zone
---------------	---	-----------

Tuesday, November 8th

10:00 – 10:45	Driving Delivery on Paris Commitments through Data The Climate Data Steering Committee will present recommendations, progress made and the foundation role that accessible, reliable, comparable climate data will play in driving delivery on Paris commitments.	Blue Zone – UNFCCC Pavilion
12:00 – 13:00	Catalytic Climate Solutions for Mobilizing Capital to EM&amp;DEs GFANZ leadership will participate in a session on innovative solutions to support capital mobilization to EM&amp;DEs.	Blue Zone – UNFCCC Pavilion
13:30 – 14:00	Fireside Chat: Redefining Transition Finance and Supporting Capital Mobilization Hiro Mizuno will moderate a fireside chat between Mark Carney and Ravi Menon on transition finance and mobilization.	Blue Zone – Singapore Pavilion
14:00 – 14:30	Approaching the Managed Phaseout of Coal Power Generation in Asia Pacific This panel-style session will discuss how financial institutions can approach the early retirement of coal-fired power plants in Asia Pacific from three angles: transition credibility, financial viability, and socio-economic inclusivity.	Blue Zone – Singapore Pavilion
14:30 – 15:00	Implementing the Phaseout - Opportunities and Challenges in Project Transactions This panel-style session will aim to uncover how the early retirement, also known as managed phaseout, of coal-fired power plants can be executed and scaled in the Asia Pacific region.	Blue Zone – Singapore Pavilion

Wednesday, November 9th

08:45 – 09:00	Climate Finance in a Polycrisis Era Mark Carney will deliver remarks as part of the opening session kick-off for Finance Day.	Blue Zone
09:30 – 10:15	COP26: One Year On GFANZ will participate in a panel on the roles of public and private finance in the climate transition.	Blue Zone – UK Pavilion
10:45 – 11:30	Transition Plan Taskforce - Setting the Gold Standard &amp; Collaborating Internationally GFANZ will participate in a panel on the importance of net-zero transition planning and collaboration in this space.	Blue Zone – UK Pavilion
12:20 – 12:50	Marrakech Partnership Finance Action Event   Delivering on Net Zero: GFANZ Actions Mary Schapiro will offer a brief keynote on Delivering Net Zero: GFANZ Actions, followed by a panel with key stakeholders discussing the importance of Net Zero commitments from private finance actors.	Blue Zone – Action Space, Ibis Room
16:00 – 16:55	GFANZ: Encouraging the Role of the Private Sector in Climate Related Initiatives and Climate Transition Mark Carney will present on the importance of operationalizing net-zero pledges following by two panel sessions on Mobilizing Capital to the Energy Transitions of EM&amp;DEs and Driving Accountability on Net-Zero Commitments: Targets, Transition Planning, and Data.	Blue Zone